Pastor B. E. Coleman
Reformation Sunday
October 29th, 2017

ORDER OF SERVICE

OPENING HYMN #200 “A Mighty Fortress Is Our God”

Pastor: In the name of The Father, and of The Son(+), and of The Holy Spirit.

Congregation: Amen!

BAPTISM Anthony Parsley

THE MEANING OF REFORMATION

THE CONFESSION OF SINS

Pastor Coleman: Let us pray to Him, and confess our sins.

All: Heavenly Father, we have sinned, and deserve nothing good from Your hand. We've been angry with one another, held grudges, loved ourselves more than our neighbors, and placed our will and desires above Yours. Forgive us for Jesus' sake. Jesus lived so that we would not die, and died so that we would always live. Amen.

THE FORGIVENESS OF SINS

Pastor: Jesus lived a perfect life in your place. Jesus died on Calvary's cross to take your sins away. Jesus rose again on Easter morning. Because these things are true, I forgive you all your sins in the name of The Father, and of The Son, and of The Holy Spirit. Reform your life out of love for God.

Congregation: Amen.

FIRST LESSON Jeremiah 18:1-12

“Psalm 46” –page 84

EPISTLE LESSON Ephesians 4:25-32

SCRIPTURE VERSE Ezekiel 18:21

GOSPEL LESSON John 2:13-22

HYMN OF THE DAY

“Lift Every Voice and Sing”

Lift every voice and sing, 'till Earth and Hea-ven ring,
Ring with the har-mo-nies of lib-er-ty.

Let our re-joic-ing rise, high as the lis-t'ning skies.

Let it re-sound, loud as the roll-ing sea.

Sing a song, full of the faith that the dark past has taught us.

Sing a song, full of the hope that the present has brought us.

Fac-ing the ris-ing sun, of our new day be-gun,

Let us march on, 'till vic-to-ry is won!

(please stand)

God of our wea-ry years, God of our si-lent tears,

Thou who hast brought us thus far on the way,

Thou who has by Thy might, led us in-to the light,

Keep us for-ev-er in the path, we pray,

Lest our feet stray from the places our God, where we met Thee.

Lest our hearts, drunk with the wine of the world, we for-get Thee.

Shad-owed be-neath Thy hand, may we for-ev-er stand,

True to our God, true to our na-tive land.

Amen.

For Those About To Receive Holy Communion

In the sacrament of the altar, Jesus offers unworthy sinners a personal-pledge of forgiveness won by His perfect life and willing sacrifice. As He draws repentant sinners to Himself, He also draws them into a special bond with one another. We demonstrate this bond in what we call COMMUNION FELLOWSHIP. Newcomers and Visitors are asked to make a public declaration of faith to establish communion fellowship before communing. We are eager to help you take this step!

Lord Jesus, You call all who are weary and burdened to come to You for rest. Rejoicing in Your grace, we now come to this heavenly feast in which You give Your children on earth Your true body and blood to eat and to drink. Remove from us the soiled garments of self-righteousness and sin, and clothe us with the righteousness purchased with Your blood. Strengthen our faith, increase our love, especially for those with whom we share this blessed communion, and after this life grant us a place at Your heavenly table.

During communion service, we ask that the first two rows of pews be reserved for members who are not able to climb or kneel on the altar. Members sitting in the first row pew will be served communion at the pew. Members sitting in the second row pew may stand and come forward to the base of the stairs to receive their communion.

Thank You!

The Significance of October 31, 1517

For more than a year Martin Luther had privately questioned the value of indulgences. Indulgences were certificates that freed people from performing acts of penance the church required to show sorrow for certain sins. Indulgences were never intended to let people "buy forgiveness." They were supposed to express people's inner desire to turn from sin. However, many medieval priests and popes distorted the original intent of indulgences. Now Luther found out some people were saying sorrow for sins was not necessary if you bought an indulgence.

Although he wasn't calling for the total elimination of indulgences, Luther was convinced indulgences were being abused and people were being misled. When Luther posted his Ninety-Five Theses on October 31, 1517, he had no idea these statements would lead to the Reformation. He wrote them in Latin and not for public consumption. Luther was calling for an academic discussion. In these theses Luther did not suggest breaking with the Catholic Church. At this time, he still believed in purgatory and other teachings he would later reject. This was a beginning point, not a fully developed reform.

In his theses Luther emphasized two points. "Our Lord and Master Jesus Christ, in saying 'Repent,' wanted the entire life of the faithful to be one of penitence" (Thesis 1). "The true treasure of the church is the most holy gospel of the glory and grace of God" (Thesis 62). Repentance and the gospel—here Luther sowed the seeds of the Reformation. The harvest came later.

Lutherans Stand on Scripture Alone

The Bible is the inerrant Word of God and contains all we need to know for our salvation and the Christian life. No other source of Christian teaching is necessary or possible. Luther declared, "The Word of God—and no one else, not even an angel—should establish articles of faith" (Smalcald Articles II:2:15).

At the Diet of Worms in 1521, the great Reformer expressed the conviction that guided the whole course of the Lutheran Reformation.

Unless I am convinced by the testimony of the Scriptures or by clear reason (for I do not trust either in the pope or councils alone, since it is well known that they have often erred and contradicted themselves), I am bound by the Scriptures I have quoted and my conscience is captive to the Word of God. I cannot and will not retract anything since it is neither safe nor right to go against conscience (Luther's Works 32:112).

Just as Lutheran teaching is bound by Scripture, Lutherans are also certain that the Holy Spirit will always accomplish his purpose when we proclaim his Word. As God has promised, my "word . . . will not return to me empty, but will accomplish what I desire and achieve the purpose for which I sent it" (Isaiah 55:10, 11).

We take our stand with confidence because God's Word cannot fail. That confidence inspires faithfulness in holding fast to Scripture and faithfulness in our proclamation of God's Word to the world.

MARTIN LUTHER

1483-1546

The members of Siloah welcome you to our church service. We invite you to worship the great God who has created us, redeemed us, and who makes us good through His powerful Word.

Come as a sinner who needs God's forgiveness, earned by Jesus Christ, His Son, who out of infinite love, paid for our mistakes through His innocent death upon the cross.

Come as a forgiven sinner, sure that Heaven is your home, eager to praise the Lord for His wonderful kindness, eager to please Him with a new kind of life, eager to hear His Word and apply it to your life.

Come with all your troubles to Him who alone can give you peace of mind, rest for your soul and eternal life- Our Lord Jesus Christ.

Our church constantly strives to be the best channel of God's grace, faithful in its use of the Bible, growing in its outreach to the unbelieving world, showing love towards one another and others, serving the Lord with gladness. "We love Him because He first loved us."

For this reason, Siloah supports the ministry of our pastor and a Christian Day School (K4 thru 8th grades). It provides channels for increasing Christian knowledge and service through the various organizations: voters assembly, church council, altar guild, choirs, ladies' societies, ushering staff, Bible classes, Sunday school and special programs throughout the year.

Counseling and help is provided for the sick or troubled through the pastor. We also have a small food pantry for those who need temporary help.

If you have any questions about joining the church, or bringing your child(ren) to Sunday school or day school, please see the pastor or call the church office.
