Remain Standing

M: The grace of our Lord T Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you.

C: And also with you.

Confession of Sins

M: God invites us to come into his presence and worship him with humble and penitent hearts. Therefore, let us acknowledge our sinfulness and ask him to forgive us.

C: Holy and merciful Father, I confess that I am by nature sinful, and that I have disobeyed you in my thoughts, words, and actions. I have done what is evil and failed to do what is good. For this I deserve your punishment both now and in eternity. But I am truly sorry for my sins, and trusting in my Savior Jesus Christ, I pray: Lord, have mercy on me, a sinner.

M: God, our heavenly Father, has been merciful to us and has given his only Son to be the atoning sacrifices for our sins. Therefore, as a called servant of Christ and by his authority, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son T and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

93 SWS Lord have Mercy

27

M: For all that we need in life and for the wisdom to use all your gifts with gratitude and joy, hear our prayer, O Lord.

M: For the steadfast assurance that nothing can separate us from your love and for the courage to stand firm against the assaults of Satan and every evil, hear our prayer, O Christ.

M: For the well-being of your holy Church in all the world and for those who offer here their worship and praise, hear our prayer, O Lord.

M: Merciful God, maker and preserver of life, uphold us by your power and keep us in your tender care:

M: The works of the Lord are great and glorious; his name is worthy of praise.

O LORD, OUR LORD

PRAYER OF THE DAY

M: Let us pray.

The minister says the Prayer of the Day.

FIRST LESSON

Isaiah 49:5–7

5And now the LORD says—he who formed me in the womb to be his servant to bring Jacob back to him and gather Israel to himself, for I am honored in the eyes of the LORD and my God has been my strength—6he says:
"It is too small a thing for you to be my servant to restore the tribes of Jacob and bring back those of Israel I have kept.
I will also make you a light for the Gentiles, that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth."

7This is what the LORD says—the Redeemer and Holy One of Israel—to him who was despised and abhorred by the nation, to the servant of rulers:
"Kings will see you and stand up, princes will see and bow down,
because of the LORD, who is faithful,
the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you."

Psalm 51a

Have mercy on me, O God,*
according to your unfailing love.

Wash away all my iniquity,* and cleanse me from my sin.

For I know my transgressions,* and my sin is always before me.

Refrain

Against you, you only, have I sinned* and done what is evil in your sight.

Surely I was sinful at birth,* sinful from the time my mother conceived me.

Hide your face from my sins,*
and blot out all my iniquity.

Restore to me the joy of your salvation,*
and grant me a willing spirit, to sustain me.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son* and to the Holy Spirit,
as it was in the beginning,*
is now, and will be forever. Amen.

Refrain

SECOND LESSON

Psalm 139:13–18

13For you created my inmost being;
you knit me together in my mother's womb.
14I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made;
your works are wonderful,
I know that full well.
15My frame was not hidden from you when I was made in the secret place, when I was woven together in the depths of the earth.
16Your eyes saw my unformed body;
all the days ordained for me were written in your book before one of them came to be.
17How precious to me are your thoughts, God!
How vast is the sum of them!
18Were I to count them,
they would outnumber the grains of sand—when I awake, I am still with you.

93 SWS Verse of the Day

STAND

GOSPEL

Luke 1:39–45

39At that time Mary got ready and hurried to a town in the hill country of Judea, 40where she entered Zechariah's home and greeted Elizabeth. 41When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the baby leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit. 42In a loud voice she exclaimed: "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the child you will bear! 43But why am I so favored, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? 44As soon as the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the baby in my womb leaped for joy.
45Blessed is she who has believed that the Lord would fulfill his promises to her!"

After the Gospel, the congregation sings:

NICENE CREED

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is,
seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary,
and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate.
He suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who in unity with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory

Communion at Siloah

If you have not taken communion at Siloah or a WELS church before, please refrain until you have a chance to talk with Pastor Steinberg so he can prepare and welcome you to this miraculous table of Jesus' true body and blood that unites us with God and each other.

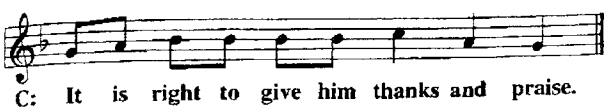

M: The Lord be with you.

M: Lift up your hearts.

M: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

M: Praise to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! In love he has blessed us with every spiritual blessing.

Minister speaks seasonal sentence.

M: Now have come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of his Christ. To him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be praise and thanks and honor and glory for ever and ever.

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

M: Our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night he was betrayed, took break; and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my body, which is give for you. Do this in remembrance of me." Then he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for you for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me."

M: The peace of the Lord be with you always.

"Love one another!"

Siloah Lutheran Church
Mission Statement

It is our God-given mission to WITNESS to the full and free forgiveness of sins through Jesus Christ in our community.

Our Objectives are:

- To LEARN more and more about God's grace through his Word and Sacraments in worship, Bible study, and our Christian school for strengthening of our faith, fellowship, and families.
- To LIVE as examples of God's grace as we gather to encourage one another and to help the physically and spiritually needy in our congregation, our community, and the world.
- To LABOR in love to share God's grace, the sweet message of the gospel, with our diverse community and all with whom we come in contact.

Actions steps from today's worship:

Learn More and More: Read the handouts and visit websites for WELS Lutherans for Life and Christian Life Resources.

Live as Examples: Intentionally tell your child or grandchild how much you love them / Thank your mom for giving birth to you.

Labor in Love: Send someone you know expecting a child a card and maybe a gift card.

Siloah's Beliefs on The Sacrament of the Altar (Communion)

The Sacrament of the Altar is:

- A gift which Christ our Lord has given to His Church
- A tangible form of The Gospel that assures us of sins forgiven
- A sacred act that expresses the full extent of Christ's love for His Church
- An expression of unity and oneness in faith with those that take it together

The Sacrament of the Altar is not:

- A sacred act that shows one Christian's superiority over another Christian
- To be consumed by anyone outside of the Christian Church
- Intended for unbelievers
- To be taken at Siloah until a person confesses unity with Siloah and the Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod (WELS)

Scripture says:

Is not the cup of thanksgiving for which we give thanks a participation in the blood of Christ? And is not the bread that we break a participation in the body of Christ? Because there is one loaf, we, who are many, are one body, for we all share the one loaf. – 1 Corinthians 10:16-17

So then, whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of sinning against the body and blood of the Lord. – 1 Corinthians 11:27

Siloah's Communion Practice:

Out of love and respect for our Lord Jesus, instruction is given to anyone before they receive the Sacrament at Siloah. All Siloah communing Partners have been instructed and confess faith in unity with Siloah and the WELS. If you are not yet a Siloah Partner or a WELS member, please refrain from receiving the Sacrament of the Altar at Siloah until having a meeting with its pastor.

Siloah would be thrilled to have you join us for communion in the future! Our pastor would love to meet with you and prepare you to be blessed by communing at Siloah.

The reception of the Lord's Supper does not make a person a true believer and not taking communion with a particular group of Christians does not mean someone is not part of God's kingdom. Jesus says, "Whoever believes and is baptized shall be saved." - Mark 16:16

Bioengineering Life for Protection from AI: Silicon Valley elites – including Sam Altman, Peter Thiel, Brian Armstrong, and Marc Andreessen – are funding embryo gene-editing startups aimed at boosting intelligence and eliminating hereditary disease. BUILDING HEALTHY, CHRIST-CENTERED RELATIONSHIPS

In a culture where many people have never been taught what healthy relationships look like, LOVE IS... helps people learn God's design for love, connection, and mutual care.

LOVE IS... is a powerful, Scripture-rooted retreat that equips people of all ages and stages of life to build healthy, Christ-centered relationships. Whether single, dating, preparing for marriage, happily married, or seeking healing from a painful past—this program offers the tools to grow in love, deepen connection, and walk in God's design for intimacy, from friendships to marriage.

Grounded in God's Word, supported by neuroscience and relationship research, and built on a foundation of emotional safety and grace, this retreat explores 10 types of intimacy—revealing what it means to truly love and be loved.

EXPLORE WAYS TO:

Build healthier, more connected relationships
Deeper understanding of biblical love
Grow emotionally and Spiritually Recognize unhealthy patterns & promote healing

LESSONS COVERED

- Introduction to Intimacy
- Attachment Styles
- Emotional Intimacy
- Intellectual Intimacy
- Spiritual Intimacy
- Financial Intimacy
- Recreational (Play) Intimacy
- Conflict Intimacy
- Crisis Intimacy
- Work Intimacy
- Physical Intimacy
- Sexual Intimacy

Through devotions, meaningful discussions, hands-on activities, and guided self-reflection, the LOVE IS retreat offers a fun, engaging way to explore God's design for love and intimacy. Learn how attachment styles and the brain's responses influence relationships, and discover practical ways to strengthen healthy connection. Along the way, gain insight into yourself, what you bring to relationships, and what you value in a partner—or better understand the partner you have. Participants are always welcome to share at their own comfort level.

The retreat takes a trauma-informed approach, with care for those who have experienced hurt in past relationships. It is led by a trained domestic abuse advocate, and participants are free to choose how much they share, with no expectation to disclose personal experiences.

WHO IS IT FOR?

- Singles
- Married Couples
- Dating or Engaged Couples
- Those recovering from a painful past involving divorce or abuse

Christmas is a time for searching. People go from one store to another in search of one specific gift. When they finally find that special present, they feel a sense of relief and accomplishment.

What are you looking for this Christmas season? Many of us spend a lot of time looking but not finding. We look for peace in our lives, but the strains of work and stresses of our relationships bring tension and turmoil. We look for understanding about why our lives have taken the direction they have only to be left pondering and wondering. We look for happiness but find only sorrow. We ask the question, "What's life all about?" We wonder, "What have I accomplished?" We are left searching for answers.

All life's questions really boil down to one. Those who have found the answer to this question also have the answers to the question of peace, understanding, and happiness. This question may be asked more at this time of year than at any other. If your life needs meaning, peace, understanding, and happiness, then you need to first ask the big question: "Where can I find God?" Long ago some ordinary blue-collar workers—some shepherds—were presented with the answer. These shepherds were told that the world's Savior was born in the small town of Bethlehem. Was it true? They went to investigate. And they found God!

"When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let's go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us about." So they hurried off and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby, who was lying in the manger" (Luke 2:15,16).

Where can we find God? The Bible takes us back to Bethlehem, where we join the shepherds in beholding the Son of God who took on our human nature and was born into the world. He came to seek and save all of us who had lost our connection with God. He came to give us the answer for finding God. We find God through him because he is the Savior who has opened the way to life with God.

No more searching. Jesus is the answer for finding God.
