TRANSFIGURATION SUNDAY

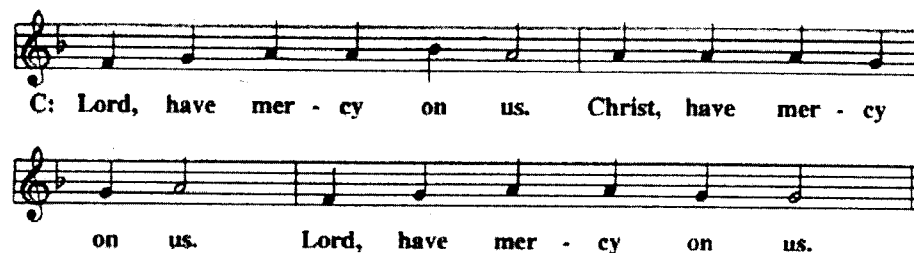

How Good, Lord, to Be Here- Hymn # 95

Pastor Coleman: In the name of The Father, and of The (†) Son, and of The Holy Spirit.

Pastor Coleman: Beloved in The Lord, let us draw near with a true heart and confess our sins to God our Father, asking Him in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to grant us forgiveness.

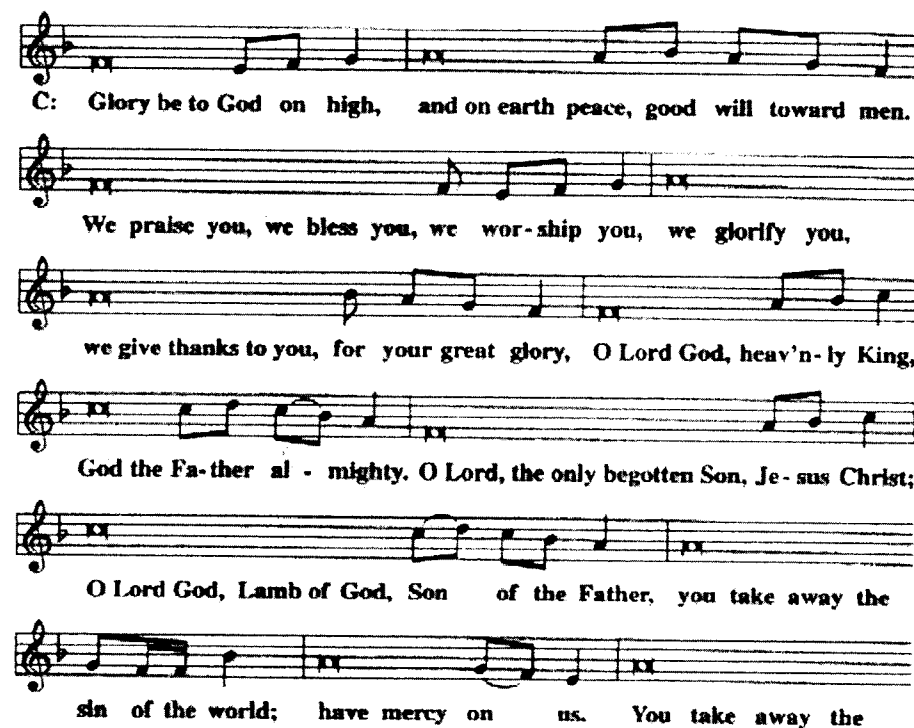

All: Holy and merciful Father, I confess that I am by nature sinful, and that I have disobeyed You in my thoughts, words, and actions. I have done what is evil, and failed to do what is good. For this I deserve Your punishment, both now and in eternity. But I am truly sorry for my sins, and trusting in my Savior Jesus Christ, I pray, Lord, have mercy on me, a sinner.

Pastor Coleman: God, our Heavenly Father, has been merciful to us, and has given His only Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins. Therefore, as a called servant of Christ and by His authority, I forgive you all your sins, in the name of The Father, and of The (†) Son, and of The Holy Spirit.

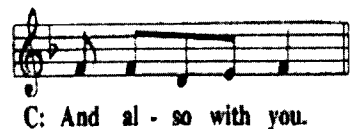

Pastor: In the peace of forgiveness, let us praise The Lord.

Pastor Coleman: The Lord be with you.

Pastor Coleman: Let us pray....Hear our prayer, and answer.

Sharing hope with those who need it most!

February 21, 2019

Siloah Ev Lutheran Church
3721 North 21st Street
Milwaukee, WI 53206

Dear Members of Siloah Ev Lutheran Church:

I saw a familiar face in my Bible class at the prison a while ago. Jimmy had attended regularly for many months until his release from prison almost two years ago. He had always been upbeat and regularly shared insightful comments with the class as we studied God's Word together. Today, however, Jimmy's face was downcast. When he refused even to make the briefest of eye contact with me, it dawned on me what was troubling him. Jimmy was filled with self-disgust!

He sat quietly during the class, listening intently as we talked about sin and grace, and God's mercy and forgiveness. At one point, Jimmy became so overwhelmed that he left the room to compose himself. Like Peter running out into the night after failing his LORD in the courtyard of the High Priest, Jimmy was overwhelmed by his failure before God. He was out. He was free. He was certain that he had put this part of his life behind him. But here he was again, back inside.

Like the prodigal son discovering the depths of his father's love for him, Jimmy was rediscovering just "how wide and long and high and deep" the heavenly Father's love is for sinners — that even when "we are faithless, he remains faithful" (Eph 3:18; 2Tm 2:13).

Paul once said, "We must go through many hardships to enter the kingdom of God," reminding us that the life of a Christian is not one grand and glorious procession of triumph after triumph, and victory after victory (Acts 14:22). The cross comes before the crown, and the path we walk will be filled with setbacks and hardship.

Thank you for making it possible for me to be there for Jimmy during this difficult time in his life. Your gift of $10.00 enables our chaplains and volunteers to continue this all-important ministry of sharing hope with those who need it most!

¹⁶ But not all the Israelites accepted the good news. For Isaiah says, "Lord, who has believed our message?"¹⁷

¹⁷ Consequently, faith comes from hearing the message, and the message is heard through the word about Christ.

¹⁸ But I ask: Did they not hear? Of course they did:

"Their voice has gone out into all the earth, their words to the ends of the world."¹⁹

Join us for a Bible fellowship this Sunday to hear the message from our Lord!

Over 2.5 million African-American men registered for the draft, and many played an important role in the military during World War II—167,000 in the Navy, 909,000 in the Army, 17,000 in the Marine Corps, and nearly 5,000 in the Coast Guard. And African-American women also volunteered and served in large numbers. The events of World War II helped to force the desegregation of the U.S. military forces.
