love your enemies,
bless those
who curse you,
do good to those

and pray for those who spitefully use you

Lent 1

"Oh, Come, My Soul"-Hymn# 99

Pastor Coleman: In the name of The Father, and of The (†) Son, and of The Holy Spirit.

Pastor Coleman: Beloved in The Lord, let us draw near with a true heart and confess our sins to God our Father, asking Him in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to grant us forgiveness.

All: Holy and merciful Father, I confess that I am by nature sinful, and that I have disobeyed You in my thoughts, words, and actions. I have done what is evil, and failed to do what is good. For this I deserve Your punishment, both now and in eternity. But I am truly sorry for my sins, and trusting in my Savior Jesus Christ, I pray, Lord, have mercy on me, a sinner.

Pastor Coleman: God, our Heavenly Father, has been merciful to us, and has given His only Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins. Therefore, as a called servant of Christ and by His authority, I forgive you all your sins, in the name of The Father, and of The (†) Son, and of The Holy Spirit.

Pastor Coleman: During the solemn season of Lent, we view Jesus' intense suffering as He takes our sins away. Because of this, we refrain from singing our most jubilant songs, and sing our Lenten verse.

Hymn 98:1

Jesus, I will ponder now on Your holy passion;
With Your Spirit, me endow, for such meditation.
Grant that I in love and faith, may the image cherish,
Of Your suff'ring pain, and death, that I may not perish.

Pastor Coleman: The Lord be with you.

Pastor Coleman: Let us pray....through Your Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord.

WELS Mission Journeys

Every Neighbor, Every Nation

Embarking on adventures to share God's Word

WELS Mission Journeys is the new WELS program that provides opportunities for members to participate in short-term mission trips. Whether church- or school-based, these groups of volunteers travel to WELS mission fields at home and across the world, contributing to the Great Commission in direct and deeply fulfilling ways.

Before the trip, a Mission Journeys team leader instructs the volunteers on how they might best serve the mission field's needs throughout the trip. At this stage, each participant develops a spiritual plan for the group's outreach efforts. They also receive materials to encourage their personal spiritual growth, effective team building, and cross-cultural understanding.

"The program's foundation is on God's Word," says Mr. Shannon Bohme, coordinator for Mission Journeys. "We really want people to have those growth opportunities so that they're able to be spiritually enriched," he said. "Our program is designed to give opportunities in devotions, in prayers, and in time that people can have studying the Word together."

After the trip, attendees return to their congregations and classes newly equipped to serve others. Many are able to lead outreach activities or events in their own communities.

A Mission Journeys trip is not a simple vacation or travel opportunity but a quest to share God's Word with those who may not yet know him.

WHAT CAN I DO?

Visit wels.net/missionjourneys to learn more. Talk with a leader at your church or school to see if a Mission Journeys trip is something a group within your organization might explore.

16 But not all the Israelites accepted the good news. For Isaiah says, "Lord, who has believed our message?"⁽¹⁶⁾

17 Consequently, faith comes from hearing the message, and the message is heard through the word about Christ.

18 But I ask: Did they not hear? Of course they did:

"Their voice has gone out into all the earth, their words to the ends of the world."⁽¹⁸⁾
