Easter 3

He's Risen, He's Risen- Hymn #143

Pastor Coleman: In the name of The Father, and of The (†) Son, and of The Holy Spirit.

C: A . men.

Pastor Coleman: Beloved in The Lord, let us draw near with a true heart and confess our sins to God our Father, asking Him in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to grant us forgiveness.

All: Holy and merciful Father, I confess that I am by nature sinful, and that I have disobeyed You in my thoughts, words, and actions. I have done what is evil, and failed to do what is good. For this I deserve Your punishment, both now and in eternity. But I am truly sorry for my sins, and trusting in my Savior Jesus Christ, I pray, Lord, have mercy on me, a sinner.

Pastor Coleman: God, our Heavenly Father, has been merciful to us, and has given His only Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins. Therefore, as a called servant of Christ and by His authority, I forgive you all your sins, in the name of The Father, and of The (†) Son, and of The Holy Spirit.

C: A - men.

Pastor: In the peace of forgiveness, let us praise The Lord

C: Glory be to God on high, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

We praise you, we bless you, we wor-ship you, we glorify you, we give thanks to you, for your great glory, O Lord God, heav'n-ly King,

God the Fa-ther al - mighty. O Lord, the only begotten Son, Je - sus Christ;

O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sin of the world; have mercy on us. You take away the sin of the world; re-ceive our prayer. You sit at the right hand of God the Father; have mercy on us. For you on-ly are holy;

you on-ly are the Lord. You only, O Christ, with the Ho-ly Spirit, are most high in the glory of God the Father. A - men.

Pastor Coleman: The Lord be with you.

C: And al - so with you.

Pastor Coleman: Let us pray....through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord.

C: A - men.

Then He took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you; this is My blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for You for the forgiveness of sins; do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of Me."

Pastor Coleman: The peace of The Lord be with you always.

Providing help in the community

Providing aid after disasters is just one aspect of the work of WELS Christian Aid and Relief. The organization also provides funding for humanitarian aid projects that reflect Christ's love to people in need. While many of these projects are for missions and sister churches overseas, several home mission churches in the United States and Canada take advantage of this opportunity to provide help in their communities.

Several congregations in Texas and in Colorado provide backpacks and school supplies for community families. Our Savior, San Antonio, Texas, is located between two schools in which about 73 percent of the children are from economically disadvantaged families. Last fall, the congregation invited community families to the church for its "Load Up for Learning" program. There they enjoyed a free breakfast and picked up backpacks filled with supplies for their school-age children.

"The Lord blessed us with an overwhelming response, and we distributed 100 backpacks within the first hour of our event. . . .

Approximately 15 families that attended this year's event continue to connect with our pastor and our church family," says Sara Sutton, coordinator of the event. "Through events like these, we are striving to share the love of Jesus with our community and build bridges with our neighbors so we may share the gospel."

Hope, Toronto, Ontario, Canada, offers a "Welcome We-Care" package to immigrants who stop at the church looking for help or attend one of the congregation's outreach events. The church also maintains a small food bank and provides additional help as needed. Members follow up with these new contacts and continue to show Christ's love.

Rev. Mark Henrich, pastor at Hope, describes his church as a "congregation of immigrants," with members representing about 25 different countries. "Hope has a heart that especially beats for newcomers," he says. "Because most immigrants come with few resources, Hope is, and can be, more of an oasis in a sea of people.

We can offer a true sense of family to the people of our community who come from all over the world, a place to worship, a place to have fellowship, and a place for some guidance and financial assistance."
